Decatur County Journal
September 4, 1902

Monday morning, September 1st, I recommenced work for the JOURNAL and Homestead in Burrell Township. It was an unlucky morning for me. First, in going down one of those lovely washed-out places, my box containing my canvassing paraphernalia, slipped off the seat and the wheel finished it. I drove back and got a new one and had just got a good start and discovered that the rubber lap robe was missing, and as the summer has been noted for "occasional showers", I stopped at MR. ROSS' and phoned my brother to bring me one post haste as I had begun to be superstitious of the old sign of "going back after starting." I was soon on my way again revolving in my mind the problem, "How to sell the most papers in the least time," when I noticed that my jacket that had been lying on the seat beside me was gone. Well, I drove back and found it just the other side of a big mud hole. I soon rescued it, and in no pleasant frame of mind, put everything in the bottom of the buggy and put my feet on them; then grasping the reins with one hand and the buggy with the other made up my mind that I too would not "lose out," and that my troubles ended. But "the unexpected is always happening," for just as I was wondering how to get across that wash-out just ahead, my horse became frightened and broke into a run, and I did come very near "losing out." He ran about a half a quarter when I succeeded in getting him stopped. Was I frightened? Well, I rather think I was, but I consoled myself with "a bad beginning makes a good ending." The following are some of the people I called on:

W.F. JONES, a new resident in this township, having moved here a year ago from Poweshiek County to the LEW MILLER farm of 160 acres. They have children, all at home. He signed for the JOURNAL and Homestead.

I took dinner with WM. WOLF, a patron of the JOURNAL. Last March he moved from near Van Wert to his present home, the Carson farm of 120 acres.

S.A. OILER moved to this county five years ago from West Virginia. He lived near Crown two years, and since has been on the farm he now owns. They have a family of eight children, three of whom are married. I wrote him a receipt for the JOURNAL and Homestead.

I stayed all night at the hospitable home of THOMAS SUTHERLIN, one of our most prosperous farmers. He owns a fine farm of 745 acres, known as the Valley Farm. He was born in Decatur County in 1856. His parents,

MR. and MRS. ALFRED SUTHERLIN, moved to Missouri when he was ten years of age and lived there six years, when they returned to this county.

MR. SUTHERLIN was married in 1878 to MATTIE FERRIS. They have two children, NELLIE and LUTHER, who both attend school in Davis City, making the drive of five miles over the good bottom roads every night and morning. MR. SUTHERLIN is a good Republican and an old patron of the JOURNAL and many other papers. He spent six months in Klondyke at the time of the great rush to that country for gold. He gave me a very interesting and graphic description of it. He thinks the Yukon river is the outlet of some large body of water that was at one time (probably ages ago) walled in beyond the mountains as you can see evidence all along the mountain sides, large deposits of sand and gravel, seams and waves, showing plainly the marks and wear of the water as it forced its way even through the mountain sides. Such seems to be Miles Canyon which is three-fourths of a mile long and about 40 feet wide with perpendicular walls, some 70 feet high. The water passes through this canyon with such a terrific force that it forms a concave ridge in the center and the water looks to be a foot or so higher than at the edges along the walls. He says it looks very much like looking down a long, narrow hall. The passage of boats through this canyon is not a very difficult feat, as a boat once started in the center of the stream cannot be forced from the center as the force of the water from each side seems to be uniform and keeps the boat safely on the ridge of water. After passing through the canyon you enter the White Horse Rapids which are about one-half a mile in length and very dangerous. Many men lost their outfits and fortunes, and sometimes their lives in passing over these rapids. Pilots are employed at big money to "shoot the rapids" for the thousands of fortune hunters that visit this country. The boats are covered to keep from filling with water, the covering fastening closely around the waists of the occupants. If the boat is rightly started it is practically quite a safe feat, but if the boat once gets out of the right course it is sure to be wrecked on the rocks as no human power can recover it when once within the clutches of the mad whirling waters. If the first danger is passed the journey is quite safe until near the bottom, where there seems to be a peculiar construction of something (probably a large rock) far in the bottom and depths of the stream. Here the water rises in an immense wave falling in one direction one time and may be just in the opposite direction the next time, making this stage of the journey uncertain, as to whether you are to get a bath or not. Then the force of the water lands the boat high (if not very dry) on the bank below, many a thankful heart was thus landed. But I believe I was to travel in Burrell Township, and not Klondyke.

I called on MRS. H.C. BENNETT, who has always lived in this county. Her husband died about two years ago, leaving her with a family of four children to support. She is a patron of the JOURNAL.

I took dinner with S. RADNICH. He was born in Hungary in 18--. He

MILLER CEMETARY

Nearest town: Decatur City
Earliest tombstone burial: Henrietta E. Luceas,
30 Apr 1858

History: In 1845 F.B. Miller was one of five early settlers in Burrell Township. We donÍt know if the cemetery was on his land or not. It is a large cemetery, about 2 acres, but the stones are in the west end. It is fenced with many trees and there are many broken stones. There is a story that a man, for some unknown reason, broke these tombstones.

Dear Mary,

Thank you so much for the picture and Family Group Sheets and for all the information that you sent me by e-mail. I had not been able to find anything on Ruth Forkner when I decided to look on the Forkner GenForum -- it was so funny, only one posting!

I shared your information on the Lowrey/Jenkins families with my Smith/Lowery cousins. Did I mention we have a <George-Sterling-Smith-L@rootsweb.com> with about 10 cousins and we have not been able to find the parents of my g-g-grandmother Sarah Ann Lowery who married Dr. William Boyce Smith, and her brother, Thomas W. Lowry who married Mary Ann Hoffman. The closest thing we have is an unsigned family pedigree that says that Sarah Ann 's father is Thomas Lowrey, wife unknown. It says Sarah Ann was born in VA, 14 July 1809. (I have photographed her tombstone in Benton Co., MO, and it has that date.) A 2 page history says that she had 2 brothers, Thomas, Jr. and John. We have found Land Patents for a John O. Lowery in the same township and range as Thomas's land patents, so that must be correct.

We think Sarah Ann married Dr. William Boyce Smith in TN, but we have not found a record. After having 3 children, they moved to Winston Co, MS by 1840, and in 1850 William Smith was Census taker. After about 15 years they went back to TN, and then to MO with the Jenkins party. This is from a privately printed book, ALLARD, CHANCELLOR, SMITH, 1966, by Clara Chancellor Martin. We have all based our family charts on that book, but have found some errors. Regardless, it is a remarkable book. One of our Smiths - Granville Cheney Smith married a Mary Frances Davis, but she is not my Davis family. Her parents are Stephen Hamilton and Martha Jane Leslie and he was Judge and quite well documented in Benton County. My Davises were not famous.

I am enclosing a check for $10.00 to pay for postage and copying. I can't thank you enough. You are so kind to help me. I am wondering if you might be a professional genealogist? If so, would you please let me know?

Sincerely,

Thelma

Notes

From: ALLARD-CHANCELLOR-SMITH, by Clara Chancellor Martin, 1966, privately printed. "Evidently the Lowery family came to Tennessee..... Sometime around 1860, probably earlier, the two brothers, Tom and Wash Lowery and wife came to Missouri and settled in Benton Co. Uncle Tom homesteaded land there and lived and worked his farm around 40 years.....It seems that he had run into a streak of bad luck, and lost the farm finally in his old age." Mrs. Martin also gives his birth place as Charleston or Richmond, Virginia. [We now believe that Thomas' brother was John Lowery)

From Velma Sippie: Robert Nicholas Smith's Pension papers, which includes an Affidavit of Thomas W. Lowrey, dated 3 Sep 1883. He is 63 years old, lives in Mount View, Benton Co., MO, and has been acquainted with RNS for 23 years, and lived within about one mile from 1860 until he enlisted, and seen him 3 or 4 times a week. His name is shown as Thomas W. Lowry, and he signed with his mark.

With a letter from Byron Goodrich, Camarillo, California, dated 17 Jul 1999, Sharon Hutchison received a family history that he had found in an antique and junk store in a box of old photos. The owner had told him he had no way of contacting the family, and asked Byron if he could do something with the information. Bryon said he would, and he submitted it to the LDS FamilySearch, which is where we first found Bryon's name. The information consists of 5 pages of pedigree charts: Smith-Lowrey Line; Davis-Leslie Line; Smith-Cottrell Line; Howard-Heiskell Line; Cottrell-Allen Line; Condley-Morris Line; and Smith-Cottrell Line. Also, includes 2 pages of narritive history entitled Smith Ancestry, and this includes Smith-Lowrey; Leslie-Johnson; Davis-Leslie; and Smith-Davis.
From the Smith-Lowery history: "He (Dr. William Boyce Smith) married SARAH ANN LOWREY in Nashville, Tenn. and as she was the house-keeper in the wealthy home of his parents, there was great opposition to the marriage and they were never fully forgiven. She had 2 brothers, Thomas, Jr. and John. They both went to Benton Co., MO before the War, but John went to Arkansas, living there the remainder of his life."
In the Smith-Lowrey Line pedigree chart, it shows Sarah Ann's father is Thomas Lowrey and his wife is unknown.

G, 4th Iowa Cav., were awarded pension, and that later, (No 55,685) in March, 1872, a supplemental certificate was issued, granting pension to Hester Ann Rogers at $2 a month from July 25, 1866, to May 4, 1867, and to Theo. S. Rogers at $2 a month from July 25, 1866, to Oct. 22, 1870. The records show that nothing has been drawn under this supplemental certificate, and there is now about $20 due Hester Ann Rogers and about $102 due Theo. S. Rogers. This money can be drawn at the Pension Agency at Des Moines if this supplemental certificate can be found, but if not it will be necessary for her to make a showing to the Commissioner of Pensions of the loss of the certificate and have the issue of a new one, in this connection to prove the identity of your wife as Hester Ann Rogers to whom the pension was granted.

S. Pension Agent at Topeka Kansas from whom she received the Amount Due her That the Agent at Topeka sent Vouchers to her in the name of Emma E. Rogers instead of Shipman Also Mabel sent the Certificate to her in the name of Rogers instead of Shipman the Vouchers being a Return

Mitchel But since I wrote the Statements for Amanda and Emma I am informed that by Amanda and the Agent Mr Adams that he did not pay Mitchel and could not untill all the heirs had signed and returned the vouchers to him so that Dear Sir will account for the Mistake in the Statements I wrote for them that Mitchel had received her pay so that it now turns out that Theodore only has received the amount due him I will enclose a few letters and cards I have received from some of the parties the last card I received from the Agent Adams at Topeka Kansas in which he says he had not paid Mitchel I cannot find although received but two days ago Hoping Dear Sir this matter may be attended to with as little delay as possible as one of the parties more especially needs it very much having by accident been almost disabled And the Agent Adams wrote to Amanda to write to the Dead letter Office in Washington and she writes me she did and received answer it was not there and as he says now he cannot pay untill a Duplicate is Issued or the old one found I remain most

In reply to yours of May 10 1882, you are respectfully informed that all the delay has been caused by the failure on the part of some one to advise me of the Marriage of Emma. Her voucher was sent to Plainfield, Ind, directed to Emma E. Rogers and ret'd by the P. M. not called for. The pension Cert. was sent to same adress by Mabel after she had executed her voucher. The matter will be adjusted now as soon as I can get all their vouchers.

Mr. Waller:-

Have you heard from the certificate? or are you trying to get an other. I don't see where that certificate has gone to seems to me it could be found. The Agent Adams told me that Mable made the mistake she sent it to Emma with out a card on the envelope. He told me to write to the dead letter office. I should think it would have gone there, But it did not.

Please write soon.

Respectfully
A. Rogers.

Mr Walker

I am getting anxious to here from you to see if you have heard from the agent and what we are to do about the Certificate. The Pension agents here tell us we should have had another Certificate sent to us in place of the lost one by this time but I would like to hear from you or the agent at once. I think the Agent is very slow about correcting the mistake. I suppose Mable has her Pension by this time has she not? Please writ soon and oblige

N. A. ADAMS, Agent.

U. S. Pension Agency,

Topeka, Kas., Oct. 10th 1882.

Sir:

In reply to the enclosed I have the honor to state that no money has been paid to either Theodore or Ethie Rogers as children of John T. Rogers, Ctf. No. 194.770, their names not being mentioned in said certificate. No payment has been made to either of the three children mentioned in the certificate and as there is but one payment to be made in the case I would request that instead of a permit being granted the duplicate be issued at once as it can be of no use if issued after payment has been made on a permit.

If Theodore and Ethie are entitled to any portion of the pension allowed by Ctf. No. 194.770, I would like to know it before making payment to the other three, as the amount due them would have to be refunded by the other three which they would do very unwillingly if at all.

Very Respectfully,
N. A. Adams
Pension agent.
